

28 June 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Please see below important dates for July 2023.

4-5 July Year End Assessment

The Year 10 examinations will be on Tuesday and Wednesday, 4-5 July. Your child will sit formal school examinations in Biology, Chemistry, Physics, English, Math and Citizenship. The school will use these assessments to review their progress and they will form part of the baseline assessment for their GCSEs.

GCSE Preparations and Functional Skills Option Choices

In September, your child will start their GCSE exams preparations. The exam will be taken in May/June 2024. The Examination Boards now only offer November resit options for English Language and Mathematics. Just so you are aware, GCSEs are now grades from 1-9, with 9 being the top grade.

Options:

We will be offering Functional Skills/Awards Unit subjects (ICT, PE, PSHE, Health and Social Care) and consultations with pupils are in progress.

14 July 2pm Awards Day

There is an Awards Day on Friday 14 July for GCSE pupils (2021 and 2022 candidates) and school will be closed for students.

18 July Parents Evening

Details will be sent out nearer to the date.

Kindly contact the school if you have any question/concern.

Yours sincerely
